Metin Kazak

Member of European Parliament

http://metinkazak.eu

Metin Kazak (Bulgarian: Метин Казак) is a Bulgarian politician and Member of European Parliament. He is a member of Movement for Rights and Freedoms. He was first elected to the European Parliament in 2007, and was re-elected in 2009. Mr. Kazak, MEP, is vice-chair of the Subcommittee on Human Rights and a member of the Committee on International Trade and the Delegation to the EU-Turkey Joint Parliamentary Committee. He is also a substitute member of the Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs and the EU-Turkey Joint Parliamentary Committee. Mr. Kazak holds a Bachelor's and Master's degree in International and European law from the University of Bourgogne.

***

Marino Busdachin

UNPO General Secretary

www.unpo.org

After serving as UNPO Executive Director from 2003-2005, Mr Busdachin was elected as UNPO General Secretary in 2005. He was a member of the Extra-ordinary executive Board of the Transnational Radical Party (2000-2002), and is currently a member of the General Council of TRP. He led the TRP to recognition by the UN as an NGO of the first category, and led and coordinated the TRP in the former Yugoslavia (1991-1993) and in the Soviet Union (1989-1993). He founded the NGO “Non c’e’ Pace Senza Giustizia” in Italy (1994-1999) as well as founding and serving as President of No Peace Without Justice USA (1995-2000). Mr Busdachin campaigned for the establishment of the International Criminal Court.

***

Wang Li-Wang

Taipei Representative Office in the EU and Belgium

www.taiwanembassy.org

Dr Li-Wang is the Representative at the Taipei Representative Office in the EU and Belgium since 2010. Dr Li-Wang is the former Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs and holds a Master of Commerce from the National Chengchi University and a Master of Science from Georgetown University. Dr Li-Wang gained skills and experience as a Visiting Researcher at the Thorkil Kristensen Institute of South Jutland University Centre in Denmark, before obtaining a PhD of Social Sciences from the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium. Dr Li-Wang was an Associate Professor at the University of Warsaw, Poland, lecturing on political and economic challenges for the Asian region and contemporary Chinese politics and society. Dr Li-Wang has also published several books on Taiwan-EU relations.
Ching-Hsin Yu

Vice-president, Taiwan Foundation for Democracy

Ching-Hsin Yu PhD is the vice-president of the Taiwan Foundation for Democracy. Dr Yu attained his masters in Political Sciences at The Pennsylvania State University in 1995. Afterwards Dr Yu became Associate Research Fellow at the Election Study Center of the National Chengchi University until 2005. Dr Yu extended his career through various positions as Consultant in Mainland Affairs or Public Opinion Survey for the Taipei government. Since 2009, he is an Editorial member for the Chinese Public Administration Review and Chinese Political Science Review journals, and a Research Fellow at the Election Study Center of the National Chengchi University in Taiwan. Dr Yu's main fields of research include the theories of Comparative Politics, methodology of Survey Research, theories of Party and Electoral Systems, electoral competition and voting behaviour and theories of Regime Change.

Michael Danielsen

Chairman, Taiwan Corner

Michael Danielsen is a Ph.D. in natural sciences and founder and chairman of the Copenhagen-based association Taiwan Corner (www.taiwancorner.org). Taiwan Corner was established as an independent association in January 2008 with the mission to inform and spread knowledge about Taiwan. Michael Danielsen has since 2008 given lectures about Taiwan, and he is a frequent commentator in Danish and Taiwanese media regarding Taiwan's current affairs. Michael Danielsen is the author to a chapter about Taiwan's identity in the book "National Identity and Economic interests" published in 2012. He was invited by International Committee for Fair Elections in Taiwan (ICFET) to be an election observer during the 2012 elections. Michael Danielsen is also a board member of the Danish Taiwan association, and politically he is chairman of the international committee in the capital region for the Danish Social Democratic Party and member of the Danish Network for Party of European Socialists (PES).

Tsai Chih Wei

Assistant Professor, Department of Indigenous Development and Social Work, National Dong Hwa University (Taiwan)

Professor Tsai Chih Wei joined the National Dong Hwa University as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Indigenous Development and Social Work in 2007. Prof. Wei holds a PhD in Law from the University of Washington and has published articles on Native American Studies, Maori traditional knowledge and Tribal Good Governance as well as climate and indigenous socio-cultural development. Prof. Wei is a Board Member of the Council of Indigenous People, Board of Director of the Legal Aid Foundation and Board of Supervisor of the Indigenous Peoples Cultural Foundation. Prof. Wei’s research focuses on indigenous laws, International Human Rights Laws, International Law, and Indigenous Peoples Intellectual Property Rights.

***

Kevin Jackson
www.solvay.edu
Daniel Janssen Chair in Corporate Social Responsibility, Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management, ULB

Kevin T. Jackson is Daniel Janssen Chair in Corporate Social Responsibility at Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management, Universite Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium since 2011. Previously he was Professor of Business Ethics and Law at Fordham University's School of Business in New York City. He has taught at Princeton University, Georgetown University and Peking University in Beijing. A professor of law and ethics at Fordham's Schools of Business and academic director of the graduate division's Three-Continent Master's in Global Management, he has delivered seminars on business ethics and legal philosophy for organizations and leaders worldwide, and has been a frequent commentator on the CBS Evening News, CNN, Fox News and National Public Radio.

***

Yedda Palemeq
www.apc.gov.tw
Program Officer, Council of Indigenous Peoples, Executive Yuan (Taiwan)

Yedda Palemeq is a member of the Paiwan people in Taiwan. After graduating from the History Department of Leiden University in August 2012, she currently works for the Council of Indigenous Peoples (CIP) of Taiwan. The CIP is the highest central government body taking care of indigenous affairs on the island. Ms Palemeq will speak at the conference on behalf of current Minister of the CIP, Mr Paelabang Danapan (Puyuma people) who, due to prior engagements, is unable to attend the conference personally. A scholar of Taiwanese indigenous literature, Mr Paelabang Danapan is a long-term participant in the development of indigenous rights on the island. His public roles first as the vice-minister and now as the minister of the Council have afforded him an island-wide perspective and a comprehensive knowledge of indigenous affairs. He has had several publications throughout the years on the island’s development and has made particular effort to promote international platforms for future cooperation between Taiwan's indigenous peoples and those elsewhere. Since its establishment in 1996, the Council has invested in building relationships with the Pacific (via the annual Austronesian Forum) and the UN (via the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues). As a speaker at the conference, Ms Palemeq will report on the Council's policies on indigenous affairs, offering perspective on the work of the Taiwanese government in promoting aboriginal concerns and development.
Formerly Head of "Human Rights, Humanitarian and Social Affairs", Permanent Delegation of the European Union to the United Nations in Geneva, Dr Hivonnet currently works in the China Division of the EEAS. She is the author of a Ph.D thesis (Paris X) on "The Effects of the ratification by the United Kingdom of the European Convention on Human Rights". She also holds an M.A in International Politics from the Université Libre de Bruxelles. She became a European Official in 1992 and has worked in Brussels, New York and Geneva on issues such as Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, the European antidiscrimination directives in 2000 and the Renewed European Social Agenda in 2005.